

MTN TRAINING for 2010/2011

BIBLICAL FOUNDATIONS PROGRAM

Bible Doctrines Survey

Sep 20, 2010—Nov 22, 2010

In a day in which truth is considered relative and religion or the lack of it is thought of as a matter of preference, we believers need to be confident of what we believe and why. Some might think that the study of Bible doctrines is for scholars and impractical, nonessential. But what could be more practical and essential than understanding who God is and how to know Him and live a life in harmony with His will? Through this brief but systematic study, you will gain a foundational grasp of what the Bible teaches about God, Christ, the Holy Spirit, angels, Satan, man, sin, salvation, the Church, and the Last Days.

Instructor: Rev Chuck Pierce

Tools and Principles For Personal Bible Study

Jan 3 - Mar 14, 2011

God commended the believers in the city of Berea because they "examined the Scriptures every day to see if what Paul said was true" (Ac 17:11). Since the Lord will hold each of us responsible for how we live, it is a dangerous practice to base most of what we believe and do on what preachers and teachers have taught us. By utilizing a few key tools for mining the riches of God's Word and following a few biblical and practical principles, every believer can be a Berean. This study will teach you what these study tools are and how to use them. In addition, it will acquaint you with these guiding principles and help you put them into practice. The goal is to help you become an independent student of the Bible.

Instructor: Rev Chuck Pierce

Old Testament Survey I

Apr 4, 2011 to Jun 13, 2011

You will gain an overall view of the first seventeen books of the Old Testament, grasping the general content of each book and how each book contributes to the unifying theme of the Old Testament. In addition, your growth in understanding the geographical, cultural, and historical background that underlies these books will heighten your ability to return to them for more in-depth study in the future. Finally, your reading and study of the New Testament will be greatly enhanced.

Instructor: Rev Chuck Pierce

EQUIPPING SEMINARS PROGRAM

Jesus & Islam: A Christ-centered Approach to Understanding Muslims

Oct 2, 2010

What is Islam? What are the barriers between Muslims and Christians? What do Muslims think about Jesus? How can we minister to Muslims locally? In this seminar, people who have lived and ministered in Muslim lands for many years will provide answers to these and other questions.

God's Strange Methods and Rich Resources

Nov 4-5, 2010

This two-part seminar for pastors and their leadership teams is led by Dr. Roy King, professor of leadership at Columbia International University and consultant to countless leaders of churches and parachurch ministries. His topic on Thursday night is "God's Strange Methods for Developing Church Leaders," dealing with God's perspective on growth, change, and conflict. His topic for Friday morning is "God's Rich Resources for Depleted Church Leaders," dealing with God's provision for living in a world where depletion, challenge, and loss are frequent companions..

MTN TRAINING for 2010/2011

BIBLICAL FOUNDATIONS PROGRAM

Bible Doctrines Survey

Sep 20, 2010—Nov 22, 2010

In a day in which truth is considered relative and religion or the lack of it is thought of as a matter of preference, we believers need to be confident of what we believe and why. Some might think that the study of Bible doctrines is for scholars and impractical, nonessential. But what could be more practical and essential than understanding who God is and how to know Him and live a life in harmony with His will? Through this brief but systematic study, you will gain a foundational grasp of what the Bible teaches about God, Christ, the Holy Spirit, angels, Satan, man, sin, salvation, the Church, and the Last Days.

Instructor: Rev Chuck Pierce

Tools and Principles For Personal Bible Study

Jan 3 - Mar 14, 2011

God commended the believers in the city of Berea because they "examined the Scriptures every day to see if what Paul said was true" (Ac 17:11). Since the Lord will hold each of us responsible for how we live, it is a dangerous practice to base most of what we believe and do on what preachers and teachers have taught us. By utilizing a few key tools for mining the riches of God's Word and following a few biblical and practical principles, every believer can be a Berean. This study will teach you what these study tools are and how to use them. In addition, it will acquaint you with these guiding principles and help you put them into practice. The goal is to help you become an independent student of the Bible.

Instructor: Rev Chuck Pierce

Old Testament Survey I

Apr 4, 2011 to Jun 13, 2011

You will gain an overall view of the first seventeen books of the Old Testament, grasping the general content of each book and how each book contributes to the unifying theme of the Old Testament. In addition, your growth in understanding the geographical, cultural, and historical background that underlies these books will heighten your ability to return to them for more in-depth study in the future. Finally, your reading and study of the New Testament will be greatly enhanced.

Instructor: Rev Chuck Pierce

EQUIPPING SEMINARS PROGRAM

Jesus & Islam: A Christ-centered Approach to Understanding Muslims

Oct 2, 2010

What is Islam? What are the barriers between Muslims and Christians? What do Muslims think about Jesus? How can we minister to Muslims locally? In this seminar, people who have lived and ministered in Muslim lands for many years will provide answers to these and other questions.

God's Strange Methods and Rich Resources

Nov 4-5, 2010

This two-part seminar for pastors and their leadership teams is led by Dr. Roy King, professor of leadership at Columbia International University and consultant to countless leaders of churches and parachurch ministries. His topic on Thursday night is "God's Strange Methods for Developing Church Leaders," dealing with God's perspective on growth, change, and conflict. His topic for Friday morning is "God's Rich Resources for Depleted Church Leaders," dealing with God's provision for living in a world where depletion, challenge, and loss are frequent companions.

.MTN TRAINING for 2010/2011

BIBLICAL FOUNDATIONS PROGRAM

Bible Doctrines Survey

Sep 20, 2010—Nov 22, 2010

In a day in which truth is considered relative and religion or the lack of it is thought of as a matter of preference, we believers need to be confident of what we believe and why. Some might think that the study of Bible doctrines is for scholars and impractical, nonessential. But what could be more practical and essential than understanding who God is and how to know Him and live a life in harmony with His will? Through this brief but systematic study, you will gain a foundational grasp of what the Bible teaches about God, Christ, the Holy Spirit, angels, Satan, man, sin, salvation, the Church, and the Last Days.

Instructor: Rev Chuck Pierce

Tools and Principles For Personal Bible Study

Jan 3 - Mar 14, 2011

God commended the believers in the city of Berea because they "examined the Scriptures every day to see if what Paul said was true" (Ac 17:11). Since the Lord will hold each of us responsible for how we live, it is a dangerous practice to base most of what we believe and do on what preachers and teachers have taught us. By utilizing a few key tools for mining the riches of God's Word and following a few biblical and practical principles, every believer can be a Berean. This study will teach you what these study tools are and how to use them. In addition, it will acquaint you with these guiding principles and help you put them into practice. The goal is to help you become an independent student of the Bible.

Instructor: Rev Chuck Pierce

Old Testament Survey I

Apr 4, 2011 to Jun 13, 2011

You will gain an overall view of the first seventeen books of the Old Testament, grasping the general content of each book and how each book contributes to the unifying theme of the Old Testament. In addition, your growth in understanding the geographical, cultural, and historical background that underlies these books will heighten your ability to return to them for more in-depth study in the future. Finally, your reading and study of the New Testament will be greatly enhanced.

Instructor: Rev Chuck Pierce

EQUIPPING SEMINARS PROGRAM

Jesus & Islam: A Christ-centered Approach to Understanding Muslims

Oct 2, 2010

What is Islam? What are the barriers between Muslims and Christians? What do Muslims think about Jesus? How can we minister to Muslims locally? In this seminar, people who have lived and ministered in Muslim lands for many years will provide answers to these and other questions.

God's Strange Methods and Rich Resources

Nov 4-5, 2010

This two-part seminar for pastors and their leadership teams is led by Dr. Roy King, professor of leadership at Columbia International University and consultant to countless leaders of churches and parachurch ministries. His topic on Thursday night is "God's Strange Methods for Developing Church Leaders," dealing with God's perspective on growth, change, and conflict. His topic for Friday morning is "God's Rich Resources for Depleted Church Leaders," dealing with God's provision for living in a world where depletion, challenge, and loss are frequent companions.

MINISTRY SPECIALTY PROGRAM

COUNSELING

If the Lord has given you a passion and gifting to help other believers with the difficulties they face and the choices they make, this course will help equip you to be an effective biblical counselor. The ministry specialist will guide you through training in such areas as common counseling issues, the use of Scripture in counseling, gathering data, asking pertinent questions, identifying unbiblical thought pattern and behaviors, and specific counseling problems.

Ministry Specialist: Pastor Jim Ricci

TEACHING

If the Lord has given you a passion and gifting to instruct others—whether as individuals or in a group setting, such as a Sunday School class or a group Bible study—in the meaning of Scripture and its application to their lives, this course will help equip you to be an effective teacher of God's Word. The ministry specialist will guide you through training in such areas as researching a Bible passage, developing a lesson plan, understanding age characteristics of the learner, creating a good learning environment, using effective teaching methods, and applying the truth to life.

Ministry Specialist: Pastor Phil Curtis

PREACHING

If the Lord has given you a passion and gifting to prepare and deliver biblically-based sermons and Bible talks which aim to bring about life change in the hearers, this course will help equip you to be an effective preacher of God's Word. The ministry specialist will guide you through training in such areas as the personal life and character of the preacher, the essential skills of Bible interpretation and application, the development of the content of a sermon or Bible talk, and effective sermon delivery.

Ministry Specialist: Pastor Dave Gadoury

SHEPHERDING

If the Lord has given you a passion and gifting to give loving care to other believers in the local church by providing them with support, guidance, protection, and correction—whether as a pastor, an elder, Sunday School teacher, or small group leader—this course will help equip you to be an effective shepherd to God's flock. The ministry specialist will guide you through training in such areas as cultivating trusting relationships, effective communication, resolving conflicts, giving loving correction, hospitality, and leading a small group.

Ministry Specialist: Pastor Steve DuPlessie

PERSPECTIVES

Perspectives on the World Christian Movement Jan 4—April 12, 2011

This course is offered by Christian universities and seminaries and endorsed by such organizations as Campus Crusade for Christ, InterVarsity Christian Fellowship, and many missions agencies. It draws its instructors from both New England missions specialists and nationally-known missions leaders. In fifteen intensive weeks it will deal with the scriptural foundation, history, cultural challenges, and current strategies for reaching the world with the gospel. It can be taken on several levels: undergrad credit, graduate credit, certificate credit, or personal enrichment.

MINISTRY SPECIALTY PROGRAM

COUNSELING

If the Lord has given you a passion and gifting to help other believers with the difficulties they face and the choices they make, this course will help equip you to be an effective biblical counselor. The ministry specialist will guide you through training in such areas as common counseling issues, the use of Scripture in counseling, gathering data, asking pertinent questions, identifying unbiblical thought pattern and behaviors, and specific counseling problems.

Ministry Specialist: Pastor Jim Ricci

TEACHING

If the Lord has given you a passion and gifting to instruct others—whether as individuals or in a group setting, such as a Sunday School class or a group Bible study—in the meaning of Scripture and its application to their lives, this course will help equip you to be an effective teacher of God's Word. The ministry specialist will guide you through training in such areas as researching a Bible passage, developing a lesson plan, understanding age characteristics of the learner, creating a good learning environment, using effective teaching methods, and applying the truth to life.

Ministry Specialist: Pastor Phil Curtis

PREACHING

If the Lord has given you a passion and gifting to prepare and deliver biblically-based sermons and Bible talks which aim to bring about life change in the hearers, this course will help equip you to be an effective preacher of God's Word. The ministry specialist will guide you through training in such areas as the personal life and character of the preacher, the essential skills of Bible interpretation and application, the development of the content of a sermon or Bible talk, and effective sermon delivery.

Ministry Specialist: Pastor Dave Gadoury

SHEPHERDING

If the Lord has given you a passion and gifting to give loving care to other believers in the local church by providing them with support, guidance, protection, and correction—whether as a pastor, an elder, Sunday School teacher, or small group leader—this course will help equip you to be an effective shepherd to God's flock. The ministry specialist will guide you through training in such areas as cultivating trusting relationships, effective communication, resolving conflicts, giving loving correction, hospitality, and leading a small group.

Ministry Specialist: Pastor Steve DuPlessie

PERSPECTIVES

Perspectives on the World Christian Movement Jan 4—April 12, 2011

This course is offered by Christian universities and seminaries and endorsed by such organizations as Campus Crusade for Christ, InterVarsity Christian Fellowship, and many missions agencies. It draws its instructors from both New England missions specialists and nationally-known missions leaders. In fifteen intensive weeks it will deal with the scriptural foundation, history, cultural challenges, and current strategies for reaching the world with the gospel. It can be taken on several levels: undergrad credit, graduate credit, certificate credit, or personal enrichment.

MINISTRY SPECIALTY PROGRAM

COUNSELING

If the Lord has given you a passion and gifting to help other believers with the difficulties they face and the choices they make, this course will help equip you to be an effective biblical counselor. The ministry specialist will guide you through training in such areas as common counseling issues, the use of Scripture in counseling, gathering data, asking pertinent questions, identifying unbiblical thought pattern and behaviors, and specific counseling problems.

Ministry Specialist: Pastor Jim Ricci

TEACHING

If the Lord has given you a passion and gifting to instruct others—whether as individuals or in a group setting, such as a Sunday School class or a group Bible study—in the meaning of Scripture and its application to their lives, this course will help equip you to be an effective teacher of God's Word. The ministry specialist will guide you through training in such areas as researching a Bible passage, developing a lesson plan, understanding age characteristics of the learner, creating a good learning environment, using effective teaching methods, and applying the truth to life.

Ministry Specialist: Pastor Phil Curtis

PREACHING

If the Lord has given you a passion and gifting to prepare and deliver biblically-based sermons and Bible talks which aim to bring about life change in the hearers, this course will help equip you to be an effective preacher of God's Word. The ministry specialist will guide you through training in such areas as the personal life and character of the preacher, the essential skills of Bible interpretation and application, the development of the content of a sermon or Bible talk, and effective sermon delivery.

Ministry Specialist: Pastor Dave Gadoury

SHEPHERDING

If the Lord has given you a passion and gifting to give loving care to other believers in the local church by providing them with support, guidance, protection, and correction—whether as a pastor, an elder, Sunday School teacher, or small group leader—this course will help equip you to be an effective shepherd to God's flock. The ministry specialist will guide you through training in such areas as cultivating trusting relationships, effective communication, resolving conflicts, giving loving correction, hospitality, and leading a small group.

Ministry Specialist: Pastor Steve DuPlessie

PERSPECTIVES

Perspectives on the World Christian Movement Jan 4—April 12, 2011

This course is offered by Christian universities and seminaries and endorsed by such organizations as Campus Crusade for Christ, InterVarsity Christian Fellowship, and many missions agencies. It draws its instructors from both New England missions specialists and nationally-known missions leaders. In fifteen intensive weeks it will deal with the scriptural foundation, history, cultural challenges, and current strategies for reaching the world with the gospel. It can be taken on several levels: undergrad credit, graduate credit, certificate credit, or personal enrichment.